

Vibrational Sound Healing Meditation with Mark Seaman and Ron

Saturday, February 18
10:30 - 12:00

Based on the ancient healing practices of indigenous cultures Mark Seaman and Ron Greenberg will present a Vibrational Sound Healing workshop. We will create a symphonic journey as your body resonates in harmony to the music and connects to deeper realms of vibrational healing. Utilizing Tibetan and crystal bowls, didgeridoos, gongs, drums, native flutes, and more we invite you to experience a magical morning of sound healing in sacred community.

It is recommended that you register in advance to reserve your spot.
